Assistive Technology tools for learning at home

Claire Harrison, CALL Scotland

CALL Scotland

Who are CALL Scotland?

- Pupil assessment and support

- Training

- Specialist information and advice

- Assistive technology loans and technical support

- Strategic leadership, research and development

www.callscotland.org.uk

What is assistive technology?

Some examples…

pencil grip

switch

text-to-speech software

word prediction

joystick

powered wheelchair and lots more…

Icon created with Freepik from flaticon.com

Links

- Symbols for All website with free PDF symbolised resources for learning at home:

www.symbolsforall.org.uk/downloads/

- Symbolised shared reading resources for Bookbug books:

www.symbolsforall.org.uk/bookbug/

- Poster with an overview of Microsoft learning tools:

https://www.callscotland.org.uk/downloads/posters-and-leaflets/raising-attainment-with-microsoft-learning-tools/

Archive of CALL's 20-minute regular webinar series:

https://www.callscotland.org.uk/professional-learning/webinars/

Other useful resources

- North Lanarkshire Communication Friendly Environments Teams, Lots of very useful visual support symbol resources:

http://www.callscotland.org.uk/bit/?KmYzekC

- Joanna Grace's collection of free resources:

http://www.callscotland.org.uk/bit/?RCWlNcG

- Short 2-minute accessibility tool 'How To' videos created for young people:

http://www.callscotland.org.uk/bit/?qzPTyow

Keep in touch and up to date

✉ info@callscotland.org.uk

@CALLScotland

@CALLScotland1983

CALL Scotland

✉ claire.harrison@ed.ac.uk

@cec_harrison